COMMENTS FROM THE PUBLIC

None

CORRESPONDANCE

There was one Customer Service Questionnaire that Commissioner Odebunmi read and shared the letter attached that addressed the customer's concern.

MATTERS PRESENTED BY STAFF

Director's Report

The Library has currently removed the age requirement for library cards. The Circulation supervisor checked with other libraries, and no other library had an age requirement. You may obtain a library card at any age now.

On January 18th, Carrie attempted to deliver a letter of revoked library privileges to a patron that has caused multiple disturbances in the library since March of 2015. Since the policy was changed several years ago, patrons who wish to have their privileges restored can appeal to the Library Commission.

OLD BUSINESS

Report from Foundation Ad Hoc Committee

No Report

Report from Friend's Board Meeting

Commissioner Odebunmi attended the January meeting. The Friends have reduced the price of the Go Green bags from $3.00 to $1.00. It was her recommendation that everyone purchase one.

NEW BUSINESS

New Library and Arts Center Cost Proposal

Carrie shared a power point presentation with the Commission in regards to the upcoming proposal on the cost of the new Library and Arts Center. Different scenarios were discussed and the Commission endorsed the smaller 45,000 GSF Library.

San Francisco Bay Area Library Visits

A photo slide show was shown with some of the highlights of Carrie and staff member Julie Zeoli's visit to the Bay Area libraries.
